Telegraphed Expressly for the Bulletin.]

RICHMOND, March 23.

The House has adopted a Resolution directing the Secretary of War to pay out of the Contingent Fund money for the aid and relief of the Confederate soldiers now in the hands of the enemy.

From Florida.

A letter from Madison, Fla., to the editor of the Charleston Christian Advocate, states that the women and children are fleeing, and all East Florida perhaps will be abandoned. Governor Milton will order out the militia, and thinks he will make a stand on the Suwannee river, and perhaps the enemy may be kept out of Middle Florida. If they are it will cost treasure and blood.

Our citizens are collecting here to go down on the train to-morrow, "on their own hook." The day of vengeance, as predicted by some of us years ago, is upon us, and we must meet it.

If Florida is overrun, the enemy will attempt to get into Southern Georgia to take the Gulf Railroad, and the cotton. The cotton is what they most want just now, and I think the hardest blow the South can now strike is at once to burn the cotton. Just keep enough for present home use. Let all the poor families that have no cotton get enough to spin. Supply our factories, burn the balance, and do it at once. Don't delay. Our cotton is the bread of thousands upon thousands in England, France and Yankeedom. Burn it, and these powers will quail to the centre. If the present cotton crop were in ashes, and the cotton States determine not to plant another crop for market, in less than two years the Governments of England, France, and the United States would be blown to atoms. Let the South try it. We can live without our cotton. The North and England cannot. The planters of Florida are hauling their cotton into the open fields, away from their homes to burn it. Some are ready to apply the torch to-day, and if the Yankees come, they will find no cotton in Florida. But I want the whole South to do this thing at once.

PROSPECTUS OF THE CHARLESTON MERCURY

A POLITICAL, COMMERCIAL, AND LITERARY NEWSPAPER

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY

THE MERCURY gives daily reports of the Market and Marine Intelligence in Charleston, and of Charleston commerce in the leading seaports of the world. The Weekly Prices Current is made up with much care, and from the most reliable sources. Its connection with the "Associated Press" insures the latest intelligence by Telegraph, and the earliest news by Steamers from Europe. It has an able and accomplished Correspondent in London (a gentleman connected with the editorial staff of the London Times,) and regular Correspondents in New York, Washington, Key West and Havana. The monthly New York Fashion Letters and weekly letters on Life in Washington are additional attractions in favor of its lady readers. Its literary notices, from the pen of a gentleman who occupies perhaps the highest position among the literary men of the South, are discriminating and comprehensive.—Attention is paid to all matters of general concern, especially those in reference to the Planting and Agricultural interest, and to the current news of the day. Great care is taken that nothing shall appear in its columns which should be excluded from the family circle.

The political creed of the MERCURY consists in the principles of the Democratic Party, as laid down in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of 1798 and 1799—the Sovereignty of the States; a strict construction of the Federal Constitution by the General Government, the agent of the States; Free Trade, and an economical Administration of the Government. Its policy is the Union of the Southern States in maintaining their rights.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER
THE TIMES;

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro. $2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it be not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to amuse and instruct."—Wilmington Herald

"One of the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union."—Spirit of the Age.

The Literary Paper of the South

"EVERY FAMILY SHOULD READ IT"

THE TIMES.

THE LARGEST! THE CHEAPEST! THE BEST ILLUSTRATED SOUTHERN FAMILY PAPER!

THE TIMES is neither political nor sectarian, but is the constant aim of the Editors to fill its columns with the choisest Historical, Literary and Family reading, and with a large selection of all the new of the day, both foreign and domestic.

The fifth volume commences with the new year 1860. Engagements have been made to make this the most brilliant year in the history of THE TIMES. It will commence with Three Beautiful Prize Stories.

Its illustrations will be increased; and its typographical appearance will be improved by a still neater dress. The Publishers are determined to keep pace with the improvements of the age: their motto is "PROGRESSION," and as the circulation of THE TIMES enlarges each year, they are determined to add new attractions to its columns, and make it the literary paper of the South. PUBLISHED BY DENNIS HEARTT.
HILLSBOROUGH, N. C.

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fortieth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 10th of February, 1820; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall contiue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

PROSPECTUS OF THE STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper, what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum	$400
Weekly	200

These terms will be insisted upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion..........$100
Each subsequent insertion..........25 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

A Skirmish on the Potomac.

The Lynchburg Virginian, of the 21st inst., has the following:

We have been reliably informed that a cavalry fight occurred about nine miles below Warrenton Station, on the Orange & Alexandria Railroad, the latter part of last week. Our informant did not state the day it occurred, but there can be no doubt as to the truth of the report, as our information was derived through Mr. Yuille, of Campbell county, who was wounded in the engagement. The particulars, as far as we were able to ascertain, were these: A force of three hundred Confederate cavalry, under command of Gen. Stuart, who were protecting the rear of our army in their retreat from Manassas, were attacked by five hundred Yankee cavalry at the point named. We lost six killed. The only person killed on our side whose name we have heard, was Mr. Thomas Watler, an officer in the Amherst Rangers.

The enemy's loss was 40 killed, and 100 prisoners captured, together with their horses, arms, equipments, &c.

ADDITIONAL.

Since writing the above we have seen Mr. Yuille, who was wounded in the fight, and from him we received the following particulars:

The engagement took place on Saturday last. The enemy's cavalry, who numbered about 500, were within sight of our forces when Gen. Stuart ordered and led the charge upon them. The forces engaged on our side were Captain Edgar Whitehead's company of Amherst, and Capt. Harris's company of Campbell, under command of Col. Radford, and four companies of the Second Virginia Cavalry, under command of Col. Jones.

The number of the enemy's wounded was not ascertained, but it must have been large. There were known to have been killed 40, and captured 100 with their horses, &c., which were brought to Culpepper Court House, on Saturday.

The loss on our side is six killed and 180 wounded.

But few of the names of those who have been wounded are known. All that we have ascertained are 1st Sergt. Thos. Waller, seriously wounded and supposed killed.

In Capt. Harris's company, George T. Yuille, Jerry Houston, and Ro. Hunter wounded. —— Nash killed.

From the West.

We are without any important news from the seat of war in the West. The telegraph has failed us completely, and the mails from that quarter are many days behind time. The Memphis Appeal of the 14th has the following:

The General Quitman arrived at the landing this morning, from the upper river, her trip having extended as far as Tiptonville, a short distance below Point Pleasant.

One of the officers informed us that a heavy cannonading was heard at New Madrid, before the boat left, which lasted from four until ten o'clock, a. m., Thursday. His opinion was that the heavy guns of the gunboats were engaged in shelling the enemy. Up to the hour of the departure of the boat, no information as to the result had been received. That there had been an engagement was not doubted, but the particulars circulated on the streets this morning are imaginary.

BATTLE AT NEW MADRID—THE ENEMY REPULSED.

TIPTONVILLE, Tenn., (via Fort Pillow, March 12.)—There has been a heavy cannonade at New Madrid, from daylight to 2 p. m. to-day.

The enemy were repulsed on each attack they made.

Our loss is said to be two killed and five wounded. The enemy's loss is reported to be from three to five hundred killed.

[Appeal. J. G. FLOURNOY.

The Avalanche of the 15th says:

Our city was deeply interested throughout yesterday, when it was announced that a private dispatch had been received from Capt. Safferans, stating that the enemy had attacked Madrid and had been repulsed several times, with some loss on both sides, but did not make a count on either. Among the most distressing of the casualties, it mentioned that Dr. T. S. Bell, of this city, the Medical Director of the division, had both his legs shot off below the knees.—We understand that he was sitting on the Grampus at the time, with his legs over the side of the vessel, when they were carried away by a shot—that he was alive, but it is not in the nature of such a wound that he can survive. His death will prove a great loss to the army, by which he was universally respected and esteemed.

No attack was made on the fortification. The infantry were not engaged, but the cautious foe attacked with artillery and shells at long range, and was responded to by our artillery on shore, and successfully by Commodore Hollins from his gunboats. It is said our loss was two killed and several wounded—among the latter Dr. Bell, as mentioned above. It was impossible to say what damage was done the enemy, but it is thought he suffered severely.

SUCCESS OF COL. REILY'S MISSION TO CHIHUAHUA.—The correspondent of the Houston Telegraph, writing from Fort Thorn, Arizona, January 30, says:

To cultivate feelings of friendship, General Sibley, several weeks ago, sent Col. Reily on a mission to the Governor of Chihuahua. It was a complete success.—The Governor, in his reply to the General, expressed the warmest feelings of friendship towards the Southern people. He desired to see the people of the South successful in their struggle for freedom, and in the maintenance of their institutions.—He also stated "that no order giving the Federals permission to pass through Mexico had been issued by the ruling powers at the capitol, and if such an order were given, he would not obey it." He also gave permission to us to purchase whatever supplies that we may need without any duty, and ordered some duties that had been paid previously by us for stores to be refunded.

Col. Reily has been sent on a similar mission to Sonora, and will, no doubt, meet with the same success. It is to our interest to cultivate relations of friendship and unity with our Mexican neighbors, and with whatever tribes of Indians that may desire peace.

CHARLOTTE.

MONDAY, MARCH 24, 1862.

Our Opinion.

Without any regard to the opinions of others, especially those who regard the future as dark and pregnant with defeat and ruin, we are ever hopeful and sanguine.

The South never will be subjugated by the hateful Yankee if the men of the South are true to their own interests and rally in defence of their rights and institutions.

We must prepare—every man and boy—and be ready when a blow can be struck. We do not want prisoners. Our children can take a bush and pick an officer at sixty yards, and our men can decimate the ranks of the Yankee horde at every crook of the road.

We would sooner see our childrens' bones bleeching upon the surface of the earth, and the partner of our life as well as our aged mother lie dead upon our hearthstone than to know that they are permitted to exist under Lincoln's Government.

Let us be up and doing, but never desponding, for it never can be said, if we do our duty, that the South was conquered by the North-men.

Designs of the Enemy.

The annexed, which is taken from the Macon Telegraph, indicates what we have long since believed and expressed, and we have no doubt that the reinforcements being sent forward via Fortress Monroe, are intended to operate in forcing a junction, if it is possible to do so, with Buell's forces, who are attempting to cross the Blue Ridge to meet Burnside at Raleigh, N. C.

It is the duty of every citizen of North Carolina to make preparation and be ready to take position or bush it, in order to decimate the ranks of the invader, and defeat his designs:

"TENNESSEE AND NORTH CAROLINA.—All eyes are now turned to the operations of the enemy in Tennessee, and the progress of his efforts to burst our barriers on the Mississippi, and sweep down the Father of Waters to New Orleans. It is an experiment fraught with tremendous consequences to the South. But, there is, if anything, a still more dangerous experiment going on in North Carolina, which does not seem to attract so much attention. It is the movement of Burnsides on Goldsboro' with 22,000 men; which, if he can reach, he will cut off the main artery of communication with Virginia, and if backed by a similar operation at Knoxville, in East Tennessee, communication will be effectually cut off, and the Old Dominion be isolated from the rest of the Confederacy. In such an event how long our armies could be sustained there would be a serious question; and whether all of them would not be forced to retreat and cut their way southward at what sacrifice of territory and public property. This is, to our mind, as serious and pressing a question as is now before the public."

Complimentary.

We take the liberty of copying the annexed from a business letter received at this office yesterday morning. It is from the pen of a prominent gentleman and true patriot:

"I am a western man, Mr. Editor, and it does my heart good to hear the deserving commendation of bravery justly distributed by the papers upon our Colonels of the West--Vance, Hoke, Avery and Campbell--as displayed at the late battle at Newbern.

'An incident occurred in the aisle fronting the House of Representatives in the Capitol at Washington, the first day of March was a year ago, that I have often thought of since the election of Z. B. Vance as Col. of the 26th regiment. I had sent my card to Col. Vance, and we were standing talking, when a representative from some of the Northern States passed by us, and remarked to Col. Vance 'that if he was not careful, they would carry a point then at issue in the House.'

"Col. Vance replied, 'that he came there a reprerentative from the South, the land of flowers, of happy faces and honest hearts, to fight them with words, and that if he failed to whip them by throwing grass, he would go South and bring a quota of men, and he would thrash them.'

"I have no doubt his far-seeing judgment had led him to think of the manner in which the difficulties would be settled. We may expect much from men whose voices have been heard above the roar of artillery in battle, shouting, 'onward my braves to victory or death—I am with you!'

"Very truly, S."

NO MORE WHISKEY TO BE MADE IN ALABAMA.—Gov. Shorter, of Alabama, has issued a proclamation, closing every distillery in the State after the 1st of April next. The stoppage of the distilleries in Virginia, the two Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama, will soon make whiskey a scarce article.

Private letters from Nashville, Tennessee, state that the Yankees have lost over four hundred men since the occupation of that city. The picket duty of the enemy is done by brigades; every straggler is taken off. It is said that but few stores are kept open in the city, and that scarcely any one is to be seen on the streets.

LETTER FROM GOLDSBORO'.

Correspondence of the Daily Bulletin.]

GOLDSBORO', N. C., March 21, 1862.

Mr. Britton:—I beg a small space in your bold and fearless journal, to speak as I feel. The time has come when it becomes us to speak as freemen. That there are spies and tritors among us—men of Northern birth—is an indisputable fact, and we should not permit them to remain reclining on their flowry beds of ease, surveying and scrutinizing every act of our government, while the brave sons of North Carolina and other States, have left their homes and everything that is near and dear to them—gone to the tented fields, and facing the cannon's mouth and the bristling bayonets of the enemy in defence of their country. I speak of Northern men who have not spent the greater part of their lives in the South. Instances are every day coming to our notice that they are Northerners in principle and sentiment.

A few days since, a man by the name of Dey, of this place, and a man by the name of Dibble, of Kinston, were arrested, and to-day sent to the Confederate prison in Salisbury. These men have lived here several years, fleecing our people of their money, and have now shown their sympathy for their native country. Is it not time our own people were opening their eyes and looking on things as they are, and not as they would have them to be? That a man of Northern birth, who has lived in the South only a few years should entertain Southern principles, is as absurd as to suppose the Sun would rise in the West and set in the East. Justice to our cause, and the duty we owe to our government, demands that we point them out if they refuse to shoulder their muskets and bear their part of this unholy war. It is time we should profit by such lessons as we learned at Newbern. I hope our men in authority will act regardless of that delicate restraint that forbids them to wound the feelings of a secret enemy, who is more to be feared than an open foe. All such secret enemies are laying plans how they may best serve their government, hoping to be rewarded on a future day by enjoying a fat office at our expense. Is there not men of Northern birth among us now holding offices of profit and trust, (while they keep at a safe distance from all harm,) which should be given to our own Southern men? The facts are visible to every eye, but how long shall these things be tolerated?

WATCHMAN.

Military Proceedings.

For the Daily Bulletin.

KINSTON, N. C., March 19th, 1862.

A meeting of Company I, 37th Reg't. N. C. Troops, was held this evening, when, on motion, Capt. J. K. Harrison was called to the chair, and Orderly W. M. Stitt, requested to act as Secretary.

The object of the meeting was explained by the Captain to be, to consider the liberality and patriotism of the citizens of the good old county of Mecklenburg.

When on motion, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we are unable to express in meet terms our gratitude to the good citizens of Mecklenburg, for their prompt aid in this, our hour of need.

Resolved, That as we have never turned our backs to the enemy until ordered—we will never disgrace our native county.

The papers of Charlotte are requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

J. K. HARRISON, Chairman.

W. M. STITT, Secretary.

General George Washington Randolph, the new Secretary of War, is a young man of extraordinary talents and great energy. In the character of his intellect he bears a strong resemblance to his grandfather, the illustrious Thomas Jefferson. At the commencement of the present revolution, he was regarded as the most promising among the rising statesman of Virginia. He served some years in the United States Navy, but resigned previous to the war. He first disitnguished himself in the political arena as the leader of the immediate secession party in the Virginia Convention, and to his perseverance and eloquence is mainly due the ultimate action of that tropid body. At the first clash of asms he raised an artillery company and was assigned to the department of General Magruder. He took part, we believe, in the battle of Great Bethel. He was a candidate for Congress from the Richmond District, but subsequently withdrew in favor of Hon. John Tyler. When a howitzer regiment was raised for the Peninsula, he was elected its Colonel. About six weeks ago the President made him a Brigadier-General, and ordered him to the command of our defences at Suffolk, Va. He now steps into the most important position—with one exception—under the Government. His character and antecedents give us reason to believe that he will prove highly efficient in transacting the details of the War Office.—Charleston Courier.

The Augusta Constitutionalist, referring to the appeal of Governor Pickens in behalf of provision crops, says:

The importance of planting largely of provisions the present year cannot be too frequently placed before the farmers and planters of the South. A full crop of Cotton is the certain downfall of the South; a bountiful supply of provisions is to secure her safety and independence.

Let patriotic planters everywhere unite in enforcing these views.

FROM FLORIDA.—Persons direct from Florida report that the enemy was about evacuating Jacksonville, their visit to that place having proven fruitless.

St. Augustine was occupied by the Federals some days ago.

We cannot hear that the enemy have met with any considerable amount of plunder in the course of their expedition, except "contrabands," whom they steal wherever they find them.

Nothing new from other towns on the coast.—Savannah Republican 20th, inst.

Let the Southern planters decide which of the two to choose. Plant Coon and be freemen, or plant Cotton and be subjugated! That is the naked question.

FEDERALS LANDING AT RED BLUFF, S. C.—Early yesterday morning, (says the Savannah News of the 21st inst.,) the report of heavy guns was heard in this city from the South-east. As these reports have of late been often heard, little attention was paid to them. By the arrival, however, of the Charleston train last evening we learn that Federal troops had been landing yesterday forenoon at a point in South Carolina called Red Bluff, some eight miles from this city. It is said that they landed some seven thousand men under cover of their guns. Our informant, who came to this city last evening, states that he saw a Carolina regiment proceeding to Red Bluff, and that every preparation had been made to give the Federals a suitable reception. Bluffton is but twelve miles from Red Bluff, and it is important that the railroad between this city and Charleston should be protected. If Carolina needs the assistance of Georgia, all she has to do is to call on us for assistance, and it will be willingly and cheerfully rendered. Our destiny is the same; sink or swim, our fate will be enrolled together, whether for weal or woe.

News from the Coast.

Passengers by the Savannah train Friday afternoon, (says the Charleston Courier,) confirm the attempted landing of the enemy on the coast near Bluffton. It was reported that our forces there had been reinforced by troops from Georgia, and that the enemy had been driven off, after having effected a landing at Red Bluff, under cover of their gun-boats.

The Savannah Republican, of Friday, gives the following account:

"There was considerable bustle in the city last night, indicating that some of the Georgia boys were about to have a chance to participate in the fight. We shall, perhaps, hear of important developments during the day."

SAVANNAH, March 21.—Our troops are returning from the South Carolina coast. The enemy has left Bluffton.

GEN. MCCLELLAN TO BE SUPERSEDED.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes:

"We have authority for saying that within twenty-four hours Gen. McClellan will cease to be in form, as he has for some time ceased to be in fact, the commander-in-chief of the Union forces. An order to be issued to-morrow will date a new era in the history of this war."

The Nashville (Tenn.) Patriot, of March 15, says that the Cincinnati Gazette has a dispatch from Washington, dated March 4, which says that "Gen. McClellan will to-morrow cease to be General-in-Chief. Staunton will issue an order announcing the change."

LATEST FROM PARIS, TENN.—Our latest intelligence is that the town was not occupied by the Federals. After passing through the village, on Wednesday, and engaging in the skirmish with Major King's command, who were encamped in the vicinity, they retreated back to the mouth of the Sandy. The Confederate pickets, it is asserted, were in Paris on Thursday morning. The Federal force in the fight consisted of [illegible] mated at five hundred cavalry, and one piece of artillery. Major King's force after the retreat of two companies, was one hundred and fifty. Two of the latter were killed, and eight wounded. The Federal loss supposed to be about thirty, killed and wounded.

The companies that retreated were commanded by Capt. Stocks, independent, and Capt. McCutchen, of Col. Brewer's battalion. The order to retreat was given upon the officers being informed by scouts that they were about to be attacked by four infantry regiments immediately, which proved incorrect, there being no infantry in the vicinity.

The Federal forces were piloted through the country by an individual named George Warner, who had recently been doing business in Paris, and is well known in this city. As the reward of his treachery to his neighbors, he was at once arrested upon the departure of his abolition friends and sent to headquarters at Jackson in irons. He should speedily be made to suffer the fate universally awardeded to traitors.

[Memphis Appeal.

ANOTHER JACKSON AFFAIR.—The Memphis Avalanche learns from a gentlemen who arrived in that city from Nashville that Captain John Morgan was sent on a scout with a detachment of his squadron near Laverno, and had a skirmish with the enemy's pickets—killing 17, and taking about as many prisoners. Capt. Morgan was entering the turnpike from a lane, and was alone, when he suddenly came in contact with a cavalier, who said to Morgan, "Halt, and dismount!" the reply was, "I am captain John Morgan and do not obey Federal commands; draw your pistol, sir, we are upon an equality." The Federal replied: "We are not sir"—at the same time making a quick motion with his hand to his side—when the valiant captain fired, and "down went the Federal meetin' house!" He fell dead—and turned out to be the veritable Captain Wilson of Buell's staff, who planted the Federal flag on the capitol at Nashville! Morgan is certainly the intrepid Marion of the war.

ECLIPSES.—There will be five eclipses this year, as follows:

1. A total eclipse of the moon just before and after midnight on July 11. Total eclipse begins an hour and seven minutes after the beginning, and lasts one hour and three minutes. Total duration, three hours, seventeen minutes.

2. A partial eclipse of the sun, June 26, in the morning. Invisible in America, but visible in the Indian Ocean.

3. A partial eclipse of the sun, November 21. Invisible in America, but seen in the great Southern Ocean.

4. Partial eclipse of the sun, November 20. Invisible in America, but visible in Asia generally.

5. A total eclipse of the moon, early in the morning of December 6—visible. The eclipse becomes total one hour and nine minutes after the beginning, and lasts one hour and thirty-two minutes. Total duration, three hours and forty-minutes.
